There are outside factors that may affect your rug's appearance and these conditions are not covered under this warranty. These factors are normal and are not considered manufacturing defects. These include, but are not limited to the following:

Roll marks

All of our rugs are shipped in tightly rolled packages to ensure convenient shipping procedures. High pile rugs usually take about a couple of days to lay flat and some low pile rugs can take up to a month. Roll marks may appear and are caused by rolling the rug for shipment purposes. Reverse rolling your rug in the opposite direction and routinely vacuuming it will minimize this problem, as it should disappear after a few weeks.

Shedding

Shedding of rugs is normal and will decrease significantly with routine cleaning. Small threads of filaments that extricate and gather on carpet surface, especially in high-traffic areas will reduce with regular vacuuming.

Improper maintenance

Improper cleaning techniques with the use of harsh chemicals and cleaning agents as well as wet areas containing moisture such as bathrooms can affect the color and texture of rugs. Should you have any questions or concerns regarding the upkeep of our merchandise, please contact us directly at our customer service line at 862-336-1111.
