Additional Limitations

This warranty is only valid for products purchased and used in the United States, its territories or Canada. Any implied warranty granted under state law, including warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, are limited to two years from the date of the original purchase. Richpower Industries, Inc. is not responsible for direct, indirect, incidental or consequential damages including, but not limited to, liability for loss of income arising from the purchase or use of the product. Some states and provinces do not allow limitations on how long an implied warranty lasts and/or do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental damages, so the above limitations and exclusions may not apply to you. This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights which vary from state to state or province to province. Richpower Industries, Inc. declines any responsibility in regards to civil liability arising from abusive use or not in conformity with proper use and maintenance of the tools as described in the operator's manual.
