

Woodguard Post Flat Cap Installation

Congratulations on purchasing the finest exterior pre-finished lumber on the market today. Woodguard will last many years to come with very low maintenance and structural durability engineered to be trouble free.

To install your cap, after you have cut your Post to the proper length, simply push the cap onto the end of the Post and apply hand pressure. Your cap can be removed and reapplied several times if necessary as it comes with a pressure sensitive adhesive sealant.

