

Use: This basically tropical plant is used as a pond plant or in warmer climates, a landscape plant.

Care: This plant requires very little care. The main care needed is to remove all the dead stems/leaves at the end of the year. In colder zones/climates, bring inside and give plenty of sun and water for best winter protection.