A rug pad is recommended for use with most types of area rugs.
Here are the list of benefits from using a rug pad:

- Prevents slipping and sliding and holds the area rug in place
- Provides a durable cushion that lessens the impact of surface friction on rug fibers caused by day-to-day wear and tear
- Extends the longevity of the area rug
- Adds an extra layer of comfort from the cushioned feel density of the pad
- Protects flooring whether it is hardwood, tile, or carpet from scratches or abrasions from the backing of an area rug
- Easy care and maintenance - can be cleaned by hand washing with a mild detergent, rinsed, and laid flat to dry
- Easily cut to fit desired area rug size and space

*Disclaimer*: Rug pads are not suitable for use on vinyl, lacquered, or acrylic surfaces. Please refrain from using a pad on these as they may cause damage to the flooring, pad, and area rug.
